FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

AGILITY PHYSICAL THERAPY & SPORTS PERFORMANCE NAMED THE OFFICIAL HEALTHCARE PARTNER OF NEXT LEVEL PERFORMANCE

PORTAGE, MI—Next Level Performance is pleased to announce Agility Physical Therapy & Sports Performance as its official healthcare partner for its sports performance training programs and services.

Agility and Next Level have come together to co-develop the R.I.S.E. Up! injury prevention program. R.I.S.E. Up!

(Raising Injury Sports Education) is a proprietary, research-driven program designed to:

- Proactively screen athletes for levels of injury risk
- Segment athletes by risk category
- Provide tailored training and treatment to prevent sports-related injury

In addition to partnering to deliver R.I.S.E. Up!, Agility Physical Therapy & Sports Performance will provide Next Level Performance athletes and partners with athletic training and physical therapy services. This will include: periodic injury evaluations, screening, parent and coach education, and on-site athletic trainers.

“We are thrilled to join forces with Next Level Performance,” said Scott Miller, PT, MS, SCS, CSCS, TPI-CGFI and Partner at Agility Physical Therapy & Sports Performance. “Coupling our sports medicine expertise with Next Level’s top notch staff and athlete development programs enables us to serve more athletes, teams and families in Southwest Michigan.”

“Keeping our athletes healthy, safe, and at their best on the field, court, and mat is top priority for NLP,” said Next Level co-owner Jud Hoff. “Agility Physical Therapy & Sports Performance brings the credibility and know-how to make this happen, and we are excited to grow together.”
